Learnto Love, Love to Learn

Dear Parents/Carers,

We will be holding another forum this term to update you on our school improvement priorities and outcomes for this coming academic year. The forum will be held on Monday 12th November. We will be holding 3 sessions throughout the day to offer flexibility for as many of you to attend as possible.

Times will be:

9.15am, 2.30pm and 5.30pm.

The forum is offered as a positive opportunity for us to engage with you as parents, in an open and transparent way regarding the next steps for our school and how we can work together with you effectively to support your children during their time at St Anne's.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Mrs. R.Crolla

Headteacher
